Why We Love Dogs, Eat Pigs, and Wear Cows - Wikipedia

Why We Love Dogs, Eat Pigs, and Wear Cows offers an absorbing look at what social psychologist Melanie Joy calls carnism, the belief system that conditions us to eat certain animals when we would never dream of eating others. Carnism causes extensive animal suffering and global injustice, and it drives us to act against our own interests and the interests of others without fully realizing what we are doing.

Why We Love Dogs, Eat Pigs, and Wear Cows: An Introduction ...

Why We Love Dogs is a slim, efficient book, but it delves deep into our psychological processes and the outside systems that work together to create the schism between what we feel ("I love animals") and what we do (consume them). With several new, thought-provoking concepts brought to the table, Dr. Joy does what the best authors make us do: she helps to unsettle our mental dust and prompts us to think with more depth, honesty and clarity.
