Soak the skewers in a bowl of water while you prepare everything else, to prevent them from burning. Tip the soy, mirin, sake and sugar into a small saucepan, and cook over a medium heat for about 15 mins until the sauce is glossy. Remove the skewers from the water and thread each one with a piece of chicken, followed by a piece of spring onion.

Compared to the other House of Yakitori, this place is quite a bit different. Sad to say, it isn't nearly as good. Food isn't as comparable, aesthetics is off (Japanese food but Vietnamese decorations everywhere), service is almost nonexistent and the internet was down so they only took cash, which they didn't notify any of their customers until it was time to pay.
